Catch up or get ahead with summer courses from the School of Music, Theatre, and Dance that are open to all majors and include both introductions and deeper dives into exciting subjects.

Courses within the MUSIC MINOR are also available.

There are no prerequisites to REGISTER for the following courses:

MU 100 MUSIC APPRECIATION
Survey of music from a wide range of periods and styles.

MU 111 MUSIC THEORY FUNDAMENTALS
Basic visual and aural fundamentals of music including intervals, scales, key and time signatures, chord construction, basic harmony, melodic writing.

MU 132 EXPLORING WORLD MUSIC
Global aspects of music and its meaning with connections to the environment, sound, and world cultures.

MU 332 HISTORY OF JAZZ
Jazz since the 1880s emphasizing its various influences and developments.

MU 333 HISTORY OF ROCK AND ROLL
Historical overview of rock and roll with emphasis on listening skills, musical analysis, the artists, and the industry.

TH 141 INTRO TO THEATRE
Theatre as an art and one of the humanities, its impact upon society, and its relationship to other art forms.

D 110 UNDERSTANDING DANCE
Broad examination of dance involving limited student participation in basic dance movements.