Accelerated B.S. Natural Resource Tourism courses available this summer online:

NRRT 231 Principles of Parks and Protected Areas Management
Tools and strategies used by managers in parks and protected areas

NRRT 270 Principles of Natural Resource Tourism
Tourism and private commercial outdoor recreation industry in America

NRRT 320 International Issues in Recreation and Tourism
History, development, and preservation of international parks, preserves, tourist and historical sites

NRRT 330 Social Aspects of Natural Resources Management
Conceptual frameworks of human dimension research and its application to resource management decisions

NRRT 372 Tourism Promotion
Planning, development, and implementation of marketing for recreation, travel, and tourism industries

NR 400 Public Communication in Natural Resources
Examine how communication shapes public opinion and understanding of natural resource issues

NRRT 487 Internship
Gain real-world knowledge through placement-assisted professional experience

Students attending main campus may register through RAMweb. CSU Online students may register through CSU Online. Questions? naturalresourcetourism@colostate.edu